S. S. INSTITUTE COMES TO CLOSE

Final Session Was Held Last Night.

Dr. McElfresh Spoke on "Educational Value of Sunday School" and Mr. Cork Made Address on "What the Association Stands For—Institute Most Helpful and It Is Believed Much Good Will Result.

The closing session of the Sunday School Institute was held in the Grace Methodist Protestant church last evening with Mr. E. P. Wharton presiding. Song service was conducted by the chair and Rev. T. G. Faulkner led the devotional exercises, reading as the Scripture lesson the 12th chapter of Ecclesiastes. A large and representative audience was present and they realized as never before the value of the Sunday school work to the community.

Dr. McElfresh, who was so fresh and vigorous on Tuesday night, presented to his hearers the educational value of the Sunday school in even a clearer and more comprehensive manner than his address on the trained worker, the night before. His address was a masterly presentation of the fact that the Sunday school is the great teaching agency of the day for morals and religion. The fact that the day school no longer read the Bible and the fact that the religious instruction in the home, a thing which our fathers stood so strongly for, was fast vanishing, made the Sunday school the supreme teaching agency of the day. The fact also that life without faith is nothing and that faith to be anything must be founded in Christ, was emphasized and shown that unless the faith in the Divine One is established in the years the child life is spent in the Sunday school, it is not established at all very likely was clearly presented. Dr. McElfresh held the attention of his audience to the fact that the Sunday school is not only studying the Bible but it is also studying the life of the pupil.

Mr. Hugh Cork spoke on "What the Sunday School Association Stands For." His address was a masterful one and full of clear convincing argument in behalf of co-operation in the work by the several denominations. Mr. Cork stated that a denomination is a part of the work only as it receives and imparts useful information. The individual school is the basis of the international association. The schools feel the need of getting enlarged ideas so they join forces and hold district and county conventions, procuring men who know how to explain the problems that confront each teacher and officer. The county organizations form a state association and still more experienced workers are secured to make addresses and discuss the various phases of the work. In turn this information received is carried back to the school and put into practice. The organization does not organize schools, but merely gives suggestions and help in so doing. The several denominations do their own organizing and the work of the schools, in the main, are devoted to strengthening the other schools of that particular denomination. But, the speaker brought out the fact that one must go beyond the borders of his denomination if he would do his own denomination the greatest service. He beautifully illustrated this thought. He spoke of the many great business men who were devoting a portion of their time and giving liberally to the work of increasing the efficiency of the Sunday school.

At the conclusion of his address Mr. E. P. Wharton announced that a balance of $7 was needed to defray the expenses of the speakers and stated that a collection would be taken. However, the next moment he announced that the money had been raised. However, a collection was taken, to be divided between the State and International work.

The sessions yesterday morning and afternoon were of a most helpful nature, though not as largely attended as was the evening service. Many ideas were secured through the round table conducted by Mr. Cork, Dr. McElfresh discussed in a practical way the week day work of the Sunday school teacher. At the afternoon session Mr. Van Carter conducted a round table on the "Teacher" and Mr. Cork spoke on "Preparation."

It is needless to state that the interest in Sunday school work has been greatly stimulated during the institute and the workers and workers who neglected to attend the sessions missed, in the opinion of those so fortunate as to be present, a feast in the way of ideas and suggestions. As a result increased efficiency along all lines of Sunday school work in this city is looked for and this means an increased attendance.

Just before the benediction was pronounced last night, Secretary Van Carter stated to the great gratification of all present that Marian Lawrence would attend the next State convention, which will be held in High Point in April.

The workers will go to Winston this morning to conduct an institute today and tomorrow in that city.

LAYS HORROR TO VICTIMS

Owner of Factory Where 25 Died Says Forewoman Was Negligent.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 7.—W. Irving Wolf, president of the Wolf Undergarment Manufacturing Company, 25 of whose women and girls employes perished in the fire that destroyed the factory Saturday, November 26, testified before a coroner's jury that Miss Anna Haag, one of the victims, was in entire charge of the plant and responsible for working conditions and the comfort of employes. As forewoman, he added, it was her duty promptly to report to him or the firm any necessary changes. He admitted there never had been any fire drill of employes, and that the door at the foot of the stairs was sometimes kept locked. He never thought the building was not properly protected, he said.

Eugene McQuat, superintendent of the Anchor Lamp Company, where the fire started, said that when he ran into the hallway to give the alarm to the employes of the Wolf factory on the floor above he found the door leading up the stairway locked. "I pounded on the locked door," he testified, "and pretty soon a fireman came along and helped me. Finally the door was opened by Miss Haag, who at once rushed back upstairs."

"In your judgment," asked a juror, "do you think that if that door had not been locked more of the employes on the floor above could have got out?" "I think the entire floor could have been emptied," replied the witness.

"In your judgment, if there had been a fire-escape at the south end of the building could all have gotten out?" "I think they could," replied the witness.

The hearing will be resumed tomorrow.

FRENCH WOMEN TO VOTE

Chamber of Deputies Committee Would Also Give Them Offices.

Paris, Dec. 7.—A committee of the Chamber of Deputies of which Ferdinand Buisson, Radical Socialist, is president, favorably reported a bill conferring upon women the right to vote for city, communal and departmental councillors and making them eligible for election to these offices.

The report of the committee reviews the history of France that bears on the subject, and points out that the right to participate in the affairs of the towns and parishes during the Middle Ages in France belonged to persons owning property, whether men or women; but since the Revolution no movement in favor of political rights for women has made headway in France until recent years.

As the women of the republic are now eligible for the professions, the report says the time has come when they should be permitted at least to participate in municipal and local affairs.

New Law Firm.

Messrs. S. Clay Williams and Oscar L. Sapp have formed a partnership for the practice of law in this city, the firm name to be Sapp & Williams. Their office will be at 100 Court Square. Mr. Sapp is a well known attorney having been for several years a member of the firm of Morehead & Sapp. Mr. Williams has been engaged in the practice of his profession here for about two years.

Charged With Beating Board.

The police yesterday afternoon arrested T. P. Korman, wanted in Reidsville on the charge of beating his board bill. He was found wandering aimlessly around, apparently under the influence of some drug, having entered several residences under the impression that he was at home. He was carried to Reidsville last night to answer the charge.

Dainty articles of fancy work for Christmas, pound cakes, fruit cakes and home made candies will be one sale at the Eastern Star Bazaar Dec. 14 and 15. Cable Piano Co's. store.

YESTERDAY IN FEDERAL COURT

Case Against Daisy Caudle Being Tried.

Young Woman of High Point Charged With Using Mails to Further Scheme To Defraud—Number of Witnesses Examined Yesterday—Case Will Be Concluded Today—Napier Case Next On Docket.

In United States Court yesterday afternoon the case of United States vs. Daisy Caudle, a young woman from High Point, was taken up, the trial being in progress when court adjourned for the day. The young woman is charged with using the United States mails to further a scheme to defraud.

The bill of indictment sets forth the fact that she sent a letter to Rev. G. F. Milloway, of Forsyth, in which she threatened to report the minister to the president, presumably the president of the M. P. Conference, of which Rev. Mr. Milloway is a member, unless he sent her by mail the sum of $10 she alleged he was due her. She also wrote letters of the same nature to other ministers of the same denomination, it is alleged.

The mail carrier at High Point testified that he had delivered mail at the address given in the letters of threat and the mail had been received and receipted for by the defendant.

The defendant went on the stand and made a splendid witness. She stated that she did not write the letters as alleged and in fact knew nothing of them until a reply was received from one of the ministers and she could not understand why his letter had been written. One of the witnesses for the government testified on cross-examination that he had received a reply from Miss Cauble, in which she stated that she knew nothing of the matter whatever.

There are eight witnesses for the government and six for the defense. The case will hardly be concluded before the afternoon session. The defendant is represented by Ex-Judge W. P. Bynum and Mr. T. J. Gold, of High Point.

The case against Jos. Napier and Charles Quaster, the alleged violators of the white slave traffic law, will most probably be called as soon as the above case is concluded. The government has a number of witnesses here for the trial.

Robert E. Taylor pleaded guilty of making false reports to the government and Judge Boyd fined him $100 and costs.

The case against W. C. Stallings, the Yadkin postmaster, who was charged with padding his report to the government went to the jury shortly after the morning session convened, a verdict of not guilty being returned.

Attended Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hunter have returned from Kernersville where on Wednesday they attended the golden wedding of Mrs. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crews. The nine children of the happy couple, together with all their children—some twenty-five—were present and the occasion was enjoyed to the fullest extent. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Crews presented them with a golden purse of $50. Both are hale and able to get around as well as their children. Mr. Crews is 73, while Mrs. Crews is 65.

Knights of Columbus Elect Officers.

At a meeting of the Knights of Columbus the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

A. Huebner, G. K.; S. Daye, D. G. K.; O. Parati, Chancellor; Rev. Father Griffin, Chaplain; R. D. Douglas, Lecturer; L. J. Duffy, Advocate; E. J. Lefort, F. S.; C. D. Higgins, Treasurer; Martin Douglas, Recorder; W. H. McCormick, Warden; Howard Federal, I. G.; Andrew Schlosser, O. G.; J. J. McSorley, Trustee.

After the business meeting a banquet was spread and several appropriate talks were made.

New Fire Horses.

The Steamer Company of the Fire Department are now engaged in training two new horses, these having been purchased to take the place of their predecessors, which were found wanting in strength. The new animals are large, handsome fellows, weighing about 1500 pounds each.

RULING AS TO MILEAGE BOOKS

Supreme Court Passes on Mooted Question

In Effect Says That When Holder Cannot Get Ticket He Is Entitled to Have Mileage Pulled by Conductor—Wilson County Man Awarded Damages For Being Put Off Train—Report of State Board of Agriculture.

Raleigh, Dec. 7.—The Supreme court in effect destroys the railroad regulation, requiring that mileage be exchanged by the holder for tickets before boarding trains, in its ruling just made in the case of Harvey vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, of Wilson county. Harvey was unable to exchange his mileage for a ticket on account of a crowd at the ticket office and boarded a train with mileage, which the conductor refused to accept, putting him off. He recovered $2,500 damages in the lower court and the Supreme court approved the judgment, holding that Harvey had a right under the circumstances to ride on mileage and that the amount awarded was not excessive. Justices Brown and Walker, while concurring that plaintiff should recover, held that the amount awarded was excessive.

Raleigh, Dec. 7.—The annual report of the commissioner of agriculture was the principal feature of the opening session of the State Board of Agriculture this afternoon. It showed receipts for the past six months $27,313, which with the amount on hand at the beginning of the six months term, made $83,339, and disbursements for the six months $81,5[illegible]. The $27,313 receipts was through fertilizer tags, $12,936; meal tags, $3,661; feed stamps, $10,134; condition feed licenses, $40; seed licenses, $25; hog serum, $23; tobacco sales, $49; oat sales, $11; irregularities (penalties for violating regulations) $432.

The exhibit for the year ending December 1 showed $164.459 receipts and $159,610 disbursements, the total income from fertilizer tags being $126,181 from cotton seed meal tags $14,026 and feeds stamps $20,646.

For the oil division created two years ago by the legislature for inspecting illuminating oil the receipts, which are separate and apart from the regular department work, amounted for the past six months to $27,599 and the expenses of the inspection to $14,663. There is a balance in hand of $8000. The commissioner urges that the legislature be induced to allow the department of agriculture to apply the surplus from the oil division to the work of the department and more especially that $10.000 in notes remaining unpaid on the cost of the agricultural building at the A. & M. College be met out of this oil fund.

The report declares that the last state fair was a splendid success and that the exceptionally extensive representation of the work of the department of agriculture there brought the work and its benefits very much to the attention of the people. The county fairs, the commissioner declares to have been exceptionally creditable this fall. He reports the procurement of an oil portrait of the late commissioner, S. L. Patterson, for the assembly room of the board at a cost of $225. He recommends that co-operation with the United States department of agriculture be continued in tick eradication, dairy demonstration, seed inspection and tobacco work and soil survey, to this end and allowance of needed amounts be made.

Tick eradication is reported to have progressed to the extent that Franklin, Wake, Randolph, Chatham, Montgomery and Stanley counties have been released from quarantine. Assistance has been given in the erection of 47 silos in 20 counties and suitable land adjacent to Raleigh has been procured for the manufacture of serum for the vaccination of hogs to prevent cholera. Dr. E. B. Flow, of Catawba county, has been appointed assistant veterinarian and L. A. Higgins assistant dairy demonstrator.

The report showed that the exhibits made by the department in the Ohio Valley Exposition at Cincinnati, cost $417.10. There are recommendations for the remodeling of the stairs leading to the museum and a number of improvements about the building. Also increased salary for the curator and for his assistant.

During the past year only fifteen per cent of the samples of food collected for analysis were found to be adulterated while in 1903 there was thirty-two per cent and in 1900 56 per cent. The regulation as to the adulteration of flour was reported to be tied up awaiting the result of the test suit in the Federal court as to the national regulations.

As to the concentrated food stuffs division the report shows $10,134 receipts of which $7,633 was from outside the state.

The division of agronomy is doing work on 58 farms in 11 counties and there are appeals from 46 other counties for co-operation of this sort; permission being asked for authority to appoint an additional agronomist. Furthermore, a second assistant is asked to have especial charge of the Boys' Corn Club work.

The report on the state test farms shows aggressive work and plans for still further advancement. As to a new building for the department of agriculture here the commissioner hopes the state will provide for a general building in which the department will be provided with adequate quarters. If this is not the case he thinks the department should be allowed to erect a building at a cost of $150,000.

FOR REVISION BY SCHEDULE

But Underwood Scores Taft's Idea of "Protecting Profits."

Washington, Dec. 7.—Representative Underwood, of Alabama, who is expected to be chairman of the Ways and Means committee in the Sixty-second Congress, made the subjoined statement when asked for his views on the tariff feature of the message of the President:

"The President's message in again declaring in favor of the protection of the manufacturers' profits very clearly defines one of the great principles on which the Republican party and the Democratic party differ on the tariff question. It is an issue on which the Democratic party need have no fear about meeting their Republican opponents in the campaign of 1912, and there can be little doubt that if the Republican party continues to make the issue before the country the protection of manufacturers' profits the country will decide the issue against them by an overwhelming majority two years from now.

"The President advocates the writing of a tariff bill in detail; that is, writing it one schedule at a time. Years ago the Democratic party advocated this proposition and were severely criticised by their Republican adversaries for doing so; but there can be no question that the only intelligent way in which a Congress or a Ways and Means committee can prepare a tariff bill with due regard to a fair adjustment of each schedule is to take them up separately, give careful study and deliberate consideration to each item, and adjust them with a full knowledge of the business conditions at home and abroad, which can only come after very careful investigation."

INVENTOR WILL CONTROL AN AIRSHIP BY VACUUM

Undreamed-of Things in Aviation Declared to Be Possible by Pittsburger With a New Idea.

Pittsburg, Dec. 7.—An airship controlled by vacuum, capable of rising to any height and of remaining suspended motionless in the air; of carrying passengers protected from the elements in a compartment furnished as luxuriously as a Pullman car; of carrying freight and enough fuel to make flights of distances not now dreamed of for heavier-than-air machines, and all by means of mechanism so simply controlled as to insure almost perfect safety, is what an inventor says he will demonstrate within a few months.

Entirely new in aeronautics is the principle on which the invention is based. It is the creation of a vacuum in the space above the airship in order to ascend and then by creating a vacuum to propel the machine in any direction.

Within a short time after it is completed, if the test proves successful, the inventor says he will start from New York to San Francisco in an attempt to lift the Hearst prize of $50,000, which has been offered for the first airship to make that trip.

Major Morehead Not Seriously Ill.

Referring to the rumor current yesterday that Major Morehead was ill, when asked last night about his condition, he remarked, "Just say in refutation of the report concerning my health that if a certain bit of good news reaches me from Washington, I'll be the livest man on the Battle Ground."

To Wed This Evening.

This evening at 6 o'clock Miss Susan Carolina Shaw will be united in marriage to Mr. Norton England.

A BANQUET BY PRIZE WINNERS

To Boys in Corn Growing Contest.

Those Who Were Successful Will Be Hosts of Unsuccessful Contestants Saturday Afternoon At Guilford Cafe—Banquet To Follow Meeting of Agricultural Association—Bushels of Corn To Be Sold At Auction.

The crowning feature of the Guilford Boys' Corn Growing Contest will be a banquet to be given to the contestants b ythe prize winners on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Guilford Hotel Cafe. This spirit of reciprocity is most gratifying to the county agricultural association and the boys are to be commended for arranging to give their unsuccessful competitors a gala time. But this is not all for while seated around the banquet board the ties of friendship between the contestants will be cemented closer than ever before and the good natured rivalry that has been shown throughout the contest will cause each boy present to strive to make a greater success of whatever he undertakes. The boys have ever stood ready to exchange ideas with each other regarding the preparation of the land, the tilling of the soil and other preparation for producing a yield of corn and the banquet spirit will enlarge their ideas along this line and show them the truthfulness of the maxim that in helping another one helps himself.

The idea of giving the banquet was suggested by Prof. Foust and it was eagerly grasped by the boys. It is expected that a number of prominent farmers and others interested in agricultural advancement of the county will be present also.

The Guilford County Agricultural Association will meet in the court house at 10:30 o'clock, the boys meeting with the association. There will be addresses by T. B. Parker and I. O. Schaub, of the State Department of Agriculture, following which the corn will be auctioned off. By terms of the contest each contestant for the prizes consented to donate a bushel of corn raised on his acre, this to be auctioned off and the proceeds applied to the prize fund. Mr. R. L. England has consented to cry the sales and it is predicted that the corn will bring good prices. There are about 50 contestants.

The corn to be sold will make fine seed corn, having been selected with especial care and each farmer in the county should take advantage of the opportunity offered to get a supply of fine seed corn for next year. In this way he will not only be helping to encourage better farming methods and stimulating the farmer boys in their work of raising fine crops, but he will get a supply of corn that will produce a great yield, provided he prepares and tills the soil properly.

It is urged that every member of the association, all farmers and in fact [illegible] persons interested in better farming methods and increased yields be present to hear the speakers.

FUNERAL TODAY.

Remains of Mr. J. R. Hiatt Brought Here From Richmond Yesterday.

The remains of Mr. J. R. Hiatt, of Clinton, who died in Richmond Monday night, were brought to the home of Mrs. C. Lamb, on West Lee street yesterday morning.

Funeral service will be held at Guilford College this morning, interment in cemetery at that place. Mr. Hiatt is survived by his wife, one son, Dr. H. Hiatt, of Asheboro; and the following brothers and sisters of this city: R. G. Hiatt, W. A. Hiatt, Mrs. C. L. Lamb, Mrs. J. I. Fountaine, Mrs. S. G. Blaylock, Mrs. M. Vuncanon, and E. P. Hiatt, of Clinton.

Before Judge Eure.

Yesterday morning in Judge Eure's court Herward Hollis, Ransom Slade, Walter Wilson, and Lonnie Foster were arraigned on a charge of strewing coal on the sidewalks. They were found guilty, but judgment was suspended upon payment of costs amounting to $12.90.

Philatheas Meet.

The Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Smith Memorial building.

Happy, Happy, Use TIZ

A Marvel For Sore Feet. Acts Right Off.

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ—

Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Building, Chicago, Illinois.

HOME-MADE GIFT FAD

Washington's O. K. Put Upon It. Miss Taft Has Rivals in Making of Fudge.

Wash. Cor. N. Y. American.

Christmas gift-making is occupying the attention of Washington society, and indications are that home-made presents will be the smart thing.

Miss Helen Taft many an afternoon will have two or three friends at the White House for an informal time. Often she will make fudge for the rest in the chafing dish she claims is her particular luck pot and which last winter she always carried to and from Bryn Mawr.

Many of the girls are following Miss Taft's example and interchanging boxes of home-made candy both with her and the other girls. Miss Sally Garlington's fudge is growing popular and her father, General Garlington, constantly is requesting her to make boxes of it for his army friends. Miss Garlington had a snap shot made of herself in a fetching cap and apron admiring her fudge, piled high on a plate, and this picture is pasted on all the boxes she sends. Miss Alice Boutell and Miss Marthena Harrison make all kinds of delectable cream candies, which they wrap in paper on which they paint a much-decorated motto. The cake served at the debutante tea of Miss Louise Helen, the first tea of the season at which Miss Taft assisted, were made by Miss Helen.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetitie and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage-all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago.' Howard Gardner.

"Kisses at Auction."

That's the interesting title of one of the very best songs of the season—the one that has made a marked "hit" in Klaw & Erlanger's production of "The Bachelor Belles," the great show now playing in New York City at the Grand Opera House, the one in which the famous dancer Adeline Genee is starring.

It is this very song—the words and music complete—that goes free as a special feature of next Sunday's New York World by special arrangement with the music publishers, Remick & Co.

No music collection is complete without this "leader." Get it! But to do so it will be well to order next Sunday's New York World from your newsdealer in advance.

MRS. EDDY'S HOME

A Beautiful Place, With Many Luxuries And Comforts.

Boston Herald.

Mrs. Eddy rose shortly after 6 o'clock, and an hour later partook of a simple breakfast. She spent the greater part of the forenoon reading subjects relating to religion, and had dinner soon after 12 o'clock. Shortly after dinner she took her constitutional drive, which lasted one hour, and after her return devoted a few hours to correspondence and other business in her bright and cheerful study, where her two secretaries took her dictations and worked under her direction.

The home in which Mrs. Eddy died is an ideal home, beautifully located, surrounded by magnificent shade trees, which screen it from view, and by lawns, shrubs and flower beds pleasing and restful to the eyes. During her former residence in Boston Mrs. Eddy occupied less desirable quarters in the denser poulated districts of the city. In 1889, desiring more retirement, she removed to the charming estate named Pleasant View, in Concord, N. H. There it was that Mrs. Eddy for the last time appeared in public to address the 12,000 Christian Scientists who had made a pilgrimage to her home in Pleasant View during the summer of 1903. She spoke to them for a few minutes from the balcony of her house, but since then she made it a strict rule to deny herself to pilgrims and vistors in general.

The house stands back from Beacon street about 1,000 yards. There is a deep, semi-circular driveway on each side of the lawn. The mansion itself is sheltered by magnificent trees. It contains about twenty-five rooms and is a marvel of architectural skill. The entrance is through a large portico. There are four rooms on the first floor, 10 on the second and the same number on the third floor. Leading from the hallway is a wide staircase of steel. Built into the walls at the two landings are huge steel vaults in which Mrs. Eddy kept valuable papers and other objects of special value.

The first floor of the residence contains two parlor or reception rooms, a library, the family dining room and a wide hall running through the entire length of the house. The rooms are all large and handsomely fitted, although not overfurnished. The general color scheme in decorations, carpetings and furniture is old gold and rose.

Mrs. Eddy's private apartments, where she spent much of her time, are richly decorated and furnished, but more comfortable than magnificent. Directly in front of her boudoir is a noiseless electric elevator by means of which she easily reached the dining room or the rooms on the third floor. Her own rooms were furnished in exquisite taste and perfect in every respect, so far as comfort and restfulness are concerned. The rooms can be lighted either by gas or electricity, and communicate with a wide iron balcony upon which Mrs. Eddy often took an airing in the evening. The rooms of her secretaries and other attendants are on the top floor. The kitchen and laundry are located in the basement.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

No Reason.

"Were you ever in Reno?"

"Oh, no. We're quite happy."—New York Telegram.

Foley's Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results, and restore the natural action of the kidneys and bladder. They correct irregularities. Howard Gardner.

Lumber to Sell.

I have a lot of extra good weather-boarding and ceiling saved last spring from some of the longest, straightest smoothest forest pine in the country, lnmber has never been picked over but is just as it came from the stack, can be had from factory in Greensboro, all prepared to put up in carload lots or less. Please address me at FARMER, N. Faint?

Have you weak heart, dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals? Or do you experience pain over the heart, shortness of breath on going up-stairs and the many distressing symptoms which indicate poor circulation and bad blood? A heart tonic, blood and body-builder that has stood the test of over 40 years of cures is

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

The heart becomes regular as clock-work. The red blood corpuscles are increased in number—and the nerves in turn are well fed. The arteries are filled with good rich blood. That is why nervous debility, irritability, fainting spells, disappear and are overcome by this alterative extract of medicinal roots put up by Dr. Pierce without the use of alcohol. Ask your neighbor. Many have been cured of scrofulous conditions, ulcers, "fever-sores," white swellings, etc., by taking Dr. Pierce's Discovery. Just the refreshing and vitalizing tonic needed for excessive tissue waste, in convalescence from fevers or for run-down, anæmic, thin-blooded people. Stick to this safe and sane remedy and refuse all "just as good" kinds offered by the dealer who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing will do you half as much good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Certificate of Dissolution.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Aden Manufacturing Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No. ——, ——— Street, in the City of Greensboro, County of Guilford, State of North Carolina (Joseph Aden being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served) has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations" preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 21st day of November 1910, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all of the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the records of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this the 21st day of November A. D. 1910.

DAY 762. PHONES NIGHT 1442

How She Answered Him

By F. A. MITCHEL

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Joel Constable had lived on his farm at Crosby's Crossroads ever since he was born, and that was forty-two years before this story begins. He was homely, Joel was, and his face and neck, which at his age should have been comparatively smooth, were full of furrows. It was a weather beaten face, speaking of days exposed to the heat and the cold, and when Joel walked he seemed to be following the plow.

Joel had never married. People said that he was so uncouth that no woman would have him. Whether or no this was the reason, certain it is that he had never asked any woman to be his wife. There was only one person in the world he wanted, and she was during most of the time he wanted her a child. It can't be said that he was waiting for her to grow up, because there wasn't the slightest hope that she would marry him when she did. At any rate, that's the way he looked at it.

But now she had reached the age of nineteen, she was of marriageable age, and Joel resolved to do the one bold thing of his life—ask her. He had heard about courtships and wondered how they were worked. Even if they had been explained to him he would not have understood them, much less been able to take part in one of them. He was aware that without a courtship a man had not one chance in a hundred to win a woman, and as to winning a girl twenty-three years his junior with or without one would be next to impossible. There was but one thing in the world he wanted, one thing to make his life worth living, and that was Hester Blake. So one evening, dressed in his store clothes, he went to see her and, happily finding her alone, said to her:

"What I'm going to say don't really amount to anything, but I'm going to say it all the same. When you were a child I left your father and mother one day after they had said something to me, and just as I was going out of the house you were standing by the door. You were four years old and as pretty as a little picture. You put up your arms to me, I took you up in mine, and you kissed me. Since that time I've been waiting for the day to come when you would be old enough to marry, and now that you are I'm going to ask you to marry me."

Hester looked up at him. There was something so pathetic in his utter inability to plead his cause that she pitied him. Then, too, she felt that there was something incongruous in this furrowed man proposing to marry her, a round cheeked girl. It was on her lips to explain this to him, but somehow she hadn't the heart to do it. She wished to make some reply, but didn't know what to say. For a makeshift she asked him:

"What was it, Mr. Constable, that my father and mother said to you the day you left them and I kissed you?"

The question seemed to make Joel feel very ill at ease. He recrossed his legs, pulled at a little tuft of beard on his cheek, thereby drawing out the loose skin, hemmed a few times, then said:

"It wouldn't do for me to tell you that."

"Why not?"

"Well," Jared went on, getting hot in the face, "it might make you feel as if you'd ort to marry me."

"I promise not to feel that way. Come, tell me all about it."

"There's another reason why I'd better not tell," he replied. "There's blood on my hands."

"Then put it in the form of a confession."

"Well, I'm dead against telling you, but if I must I must. About that time—when you kissed me, you know—there was a murder committed, and your father run away at the same time. The reason he did that was because he was liable to be charged with the murder. He was hunted down in the woods and brought to jail in town. That night the mob was coming to lynch him. I found out about it, went to the jail with a horse and buggy, told the jailer and agreed to drive your father to a safe place. He agreed. We were followed by some men on the watch for us. I shot one of 'em. I got your father off, though."

There was so much labor in getting out this simple story that when Joel reached the end of it he took out a bandanna handkerchief and mopped his brow. Then he tried to go on and explain what Hester's father and mother had said to him on the day she kissed him. Hester permitted him to stumble on until he had got inextricably tangled up, when she stopped him.

"I've heard father tell all about that, and he said he was saved to us by one of the noblest, bravest men that ever lived, but he would never tell his name."

"That was because I'd shot the man, and your father was the only person living that knew it. If it had got out I should have had to suffer for it."

"And you were my father's savior."

"Most any one would have done it."

There was a silence between them, at the end of which Hester said:

"You asked me a question."

"Oh, never mind answering that, I know that can't be."

She threw her arms about his neck, and the question was answered.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

President Taft's message was 38,000 words long. Must have had some views he wanted to conceal.

The elections in England show that English folks are very much like American folks. They want the average man to have a chance.

China is progressing most rapidly in the tenets of our Christian civilization. She is to have a navy conducted entirely along modern lines.

Democratic Congressmen are criticizing the President's message as "being weak on the tariff." Nof if those Democratic Congressmen will only ring true themselves when the pinch comes!

Somebody in Virginia has sent King George fifty Smithfield hams. But George will hardly be prevailed to write a testimonial for them, as much as they may deserve it.

The President sees his party's faults when he calls for economy. But his party has already acted the spendthrift to such a degree that the sudden burst of economy on the part of Mr. Taft will hardly avail them anything.

The Baltimore Sun characterizes President Taft's message as "a document that simply marks time while the battle impends." Mr. Taft would have to depart from his well established characteristics to write any other sort of a message than that.

Senator Rayner, of Maryland, is suggested for associate justice of the United States Supreme Court if Taft is to appoint a Democrat. Taft is not looking for a Democrat of the Rayner type. He wants a nigh-Democrat if a Democrat at all.

Baltimore and several other cities to the north got ten inches of snow earlier in the week to the half inch or so that fell in North Carolina. Why do the people flock to the damp, cold, foggy cities along the Atlantic anyway? The climate doesn't take them there. That much is certain.

The other day in Paris a crank slapped the Premier. He got three years for it. The punishment was not excessive. A blow at a high government official is an act of marked disrespect for the whole people whom he represents. It is an act of anarchy pure and simple.

The Norfolk City Council is considering abolishing taxes on all business houses except places where liquor is sold. The license tax works very inequitably, as a two-by-four concern is obliged to pay as much as a concern which may do business in several states. Norfolk's proposed innovation appears to have merit.

The Lexington Dispatch says:

The newspapers of the state have been attempting to explain the whys and wherefore's of the appointment of Prof. J. J. Britt, of Asheville, as Third Assistant Postmaster General. Some say that his appointment is evidence of the reinstatement at court of E. Carl Duncan and the re-ascendency of the Old Guard that went down in defeat before the minions of Butler and Morehead. Perhaps, but we believe that the real reason for his appointment is Britt himself. He is a Republican of the highest type and one of the state's best citizens and the honor has come to him as a recognition of real merit.

Prof. Britt, from all accounts, is a high-toned gentleman and quite worthy of the honor conferred upon him. But there are other able and competent Republicans and the lightning didn't strike them. The fact that it struck where it did seems rather significant and indicates that the Postmaster General at any rate looks kindly on the old Republican regime in this State. Of that regime Prof. Britt was all along one of the most conspicuous and ardent champions.

MR. M'NAIRY AND MISS VICKORY WED

Popular Young Couple United in Marriage At West Market Street Methodist Church Yesterday—Off on a Wedding Trip.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Allie Elizabeth Vickory to Mr. Eugene W. McNairy yesterday at high noon at West Market Street M. E. church. The large church auditorium was well filled with friends and relatives of the young couple.

The altar of the church was beautifully banked with ferns and palms, forming a beautiful background before which Dr. E. K. McLarty stood while performing the ceremony.

Mr. Claude Robeson was at the organ and rendered the musical program of the occasion. Just before the ceremony Mr. Edgar R. Clapp sang in his splendid way "O Perfect Love."

Then the peals of the organ burst out to the strains of "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and the bridal party entered. First entered the groomsmen, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, Messrs. O. F. McNairy, Moody Stroud, C. D. Sellars, T. A. Glascock and C. C. McLean. They entered in pairs, crossing in front of the altar. Next came the little ring bearer, little Miss Carolyn Glascock, niece of the groom, carrying the ring on a beautiful long stemmed white satin rose. She looked very charming in an accordion pleated white batiste dress with pink ribbons. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Long, followed by the dame of honor, Mrs. Floyd Lamb, of Durham.

The bride came in leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. A. W. Vickory, who gave her away, and they were met at the altar by the groom who entered with his best man, Prof. W. H. McNairy, of Chester, S. C., from the pastor's study.

After the ceremony the bridal party retired in reversed order as the organist played the march from Mendelssohn.

The bride wore a lovely blue tailored traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Long, was attired in white cloth with silver trimmings with big black picture hat and carried pink roses. Mrs. Lamb, (dame of honor) wore hand embroidered lavender cloth with black picture hat and carried pink roses.

Mr. McNairy and bride left on No. 36 for a ten days trip to Washington and New York and will be at home at 507 Arlington street on their return.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Vickory and is a charming and attractive young woman, whose bright and sunny disposition has won for her the love and admiration of all her acquaintances. The groom is a popular young man with hosts of friends throughout the county and state. He travels for Marler, Dalton-Gilmer Co., of Winston-Salem.

The out of town guests were: Prof. and Mrs. W. H. McNairy, of Chester, S. C.; Mr. J. M. McNairy, Waco, Tex.; Mr. Oscar McNairy, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. Arthur Morris, Thomasville; Mrs. Floyd Lamb, of Durham; Miss Mary Freeman, Burlington.

The Reception.

After the wedding the relatives were invited to the Vickory home on West Market street where a reception was held. The dining room was beautifully decorated. In the center of the room was the table and from the chandelier were streams of white tulle and maiden hair fern. The room was lighted with candles.

Misses Mary Patterson and Bessie Coffin, Mrs. L. K. Thompson and Mrs. Elmo Sellars served a salad course, while Mrs. Wistar Stockard poured coffee.

CHANGE OF PLACE.

Woman's Club To Entertain At Elks' Club Instead of Y. W. C. A., As Announced.

The reception which was announced by the literature department of the Woman's Club for four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A., will be held in the Elks' building, instead, and will take place at 3:30 p. m., Saturday, Dec. 10. All members are urged to keep the date in mind and be present at least 5 minutes ahead of time.

An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. Mr. R. D. W. Connor, of Raleigh, will speak on North Carolina history.

According To Mammy.

Saturday Evening Post.

"Dear mamma," wrote a bride transplanted from a Southern family to the North, "please have Mammy Johanna send me her recipe for hot cakes."

Mammy Johanna has presided in the kitchen for 30 years. With much labor she wrote the recipe.

This was it: "Take as much flour as you need 'cordin' to how many folks they is to eat; put in some salt—Miss Mary knows how much; put in all the rest of the ingrediums and be sure to have your griddle hot."

Mrs. Harrison Entertains Exchange Book Club.

Yesterday afternoon at her home on West Market street, Mrs. J. B. Harrison entertained the Exchange Book Club. There were three tables at which flinch was played. No prizes were given, but that did not dampen the spirit of the play. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments in three courses were served.

A COMPROMISE IN NOTED PAVING SUIT

City Will Pay Southern Paving and Construction Company Eight Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars—The Compromise Finally Effected Yesterday—Long Drawn Out Case.

In United States Court yesterday afternoon Judge Boyd signed a judgment in the suit of the Southern Paving and Construction Company vs. the City of Greensboro, the parties to the suit having agreed upon a compromise. By the terms of the compromise the city is to pay the company $8,500 and pay one half the costs in the circuit court. The company pays the entire costs in the circuit court of appeals. A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday for the purpose of agreeing upon a compromise.

This is the end of a long drawn out case, the suit having been instituted against the city in 1906. The amount the paving company was suing for was $12,981.69 with interest from May 15, 1906. The interest would have made the total about $16,000. The facts in the case in brief follow:

On Sept. 20, 1905, the city contracted with the Southern Paving and Construction Company to pave South Elm street from Lee to Church with vitrified brick, the cost to be $2.08 per square yard. The contractors began at Lee street and when the work had progressed to a point nearly in front of the postoffice an injunction was secured by Messrs. C. D. Benbow, B. H. Merrimon and others, preventing the city from paying for the work, on the grounds that it was not being properly done. The work was held up here for some time, but finally the company completed the contract. The city refused to pay the remainder due the company under the contract when the work was completed on May 15, 1906. Something like $24,000 had been paid before the injunction was procured.

At the fall term of United States court, following, suit was instituted. The case was tried in April, 1908, the plaintiff being awarded the amount asked for. During the trial the court ruled out a considerable portion of what was considered by counsel the more valuable testimony of the defendant and an appeal was taken. The circuit court of appeals reversed the lower court, holding that the testimony ruled out was admissable, and ordered a new trial. The paving company petitioned the United States Supreme court for a writ of certorari, but the petition was denied. At this time of the compromise the case was standing on the calendar for retrial and would have probably come up during the present term.

The city was represented by Stedman & Cooke, Justice and Broadhurst and Shaw & Hines. Merrick and Barnard, of Asheville, W. P. Bynum and Wilson and Ferguson, of this city appeared for the paving company.

Now that the case has been settled the city will probably begin collecting from the adjoining property owners for their proportionate cost of the paving, this action to be under the provisions of the Hunter ordinance.

Holton Drug Store Property Purchased by Mr. W. D. McAdoo At $2,500.

The sale of the Holton drug store property made by auction to Mr. W. D. McAdoo, was confirmed yesterday by the referee in bankruptcy. The price paid for the property was $2,500.

It is understood that the property has been leased to a druggist in the city and that the business will be continued, though this could not be confirmed last night.

THE THIN AND WEAK

Easy Way For Them to Get Strong and Fat.

To thin and weak Howard Gardner has a word to say. Let them use Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, that is now so popular, and they will soon be plump and rosy.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh-forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

There may be one or two out of every hundred who begin the use of Samose who are not helped as they expect. In all these cases Druggist Gardner will return the money without any questions.

You certainly cannot afford to be thin and sick when good flesh and perfect health are offered on this plan.

We Have Something to Say

We are not making a "charity plea" or anything of the sort, but we do want you to know that we are a small agency and need a part of your business. WE WRITE—

Fire, Life, Health, Accident and General Liability Insurance and Bonds,

AND WE KNOW HOW TO DO IT, and have some of the best companies to do it with.

Won't you loosen up and remember us when you go to give your business to these older and larger agencies who have had your business since the days of Noah. We want them to live and do well and THEY CAN EASILY DO IT EVEN IF YOU DO GIVE US A SMALL POLICY.

If you want to enjoy the real spirit of Christmas give the small man, the fellow on the bottom round, a lift. He is the one that needs it and not the man already at the top.

We will appreciate a small part of your business, not as a charitable gift but as a sign of your good will toward the fellow that is trying to do something for himself.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS IS ABROAD, AND IS DAILY MANIFESTING ITSELF MORE STRONGLY. TO US "BEHIND THE GUNS," IT IS EXCEEDINGLY INTERESTING TO WATCH ITS DEVELOPMENT FROM DAY TO DAY, NOT MERELY BECAUSE IT MEANS BUSINESS FOR US, BUT BECAUSE IT IS ACCOMPANIED BY A FEELING OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP THAT EVERYBODY SHARES.

FOR TODAY:

We call especial attention to our line of fine writing papers in Christmas boxes.

For the little folks a little box with a little verse reading "I thought of something sweet for you, and Violets asked if they would do." 25c.

For the older folks, handsome decorated boxes ranging in price from 75c. to $3.50 a box.

In addition to the paper being Whiting's finest quality, the boxes are real works of art, and worth preserving.

We also call attention to a new lot of Laundry Pads for those who are making up their own gifts. 10c.

Dennison's Decorated Crepe Paper is useful in making gifts. Comes in folds of ten feet.

We are headquarters for the Red Cross Christmas stamps. We make no profit on these but sell them to help the cause.

Extra Cut In Price.

Cheek-Huston Piano & Organ Company Are Offering an Inducement For Quick Buyers—If You Don't Buy Now, You Never Will—Open Evenings Until 9:30.
324 S. Elm St.

The big piano sale will soon be over at the Cheek-Huston Piano & Organ Co.'s store.

It has been a busy place for the past week, as people are realizing that it is the greatest piano opportunity ever offered to piano buyers in this section.

There are many bargains left yet, and if you ever expect to buy a piano, it would pay you to make room for it some way and take one to your home.

Remember the prices at which we offer to sell these goods, will only last for two days more, and as this is the last call, it will pay you to make your way to our store at once.

It is useless for us to quote prices and terms here, because, as we say, no reasonable offer will be refused from reliable people. In other words, we have a few more pianos here for sale, and it does not require salesmanship to sell goods at these prices.

Don't delay. Act quickly and receive the benefit.

Open every night until 9:30 to accommodate those who cannot call during the day.

MUZZLING THE PRESS.

A Much Favored Official Duty at One Time In England.

There was a time in England when government officially viewed the press as a hostile power, to be destroyed if possible—to be curbed at any cost. In 1633 Roger L'Estrange, "overseer of the press," brought out his "Considerations and Proposals In Order to the Regulation of the Press." He advocated the severest restrictions for authors and printers, as well as for "the letter founders and the smiths and joiners that work upon the premises" and "the stitchers, binders, stationers, hawkers, mercury women, peddlers, ballad singers, posts, carriers, hackney coachmen, boatmen and mariners."

A proposal of L'Estrange was that culprits convicted of having broken the law should be condemned "to wear some visible badge or mark of ignominy, as a halter instead of a hatband, one stocking blue and another red, a blue bonnet with a red letter T or S upon it." A few years later L'Estrange went one better by declaring that newspapers ought not be allowed at all.

He said that the reading of them "makes the multitude too familiar with the actions and councils of their superiors, too pragmatical and censorious, and gives them not only an itch but a kind of colorable right and license to be meddling with the government." In 1685 L'Estrange was knighted.—Chicago News.

Look for the Bell on the Sole.

You don't know it, but every manufacturer of shoes knows that he can play up any one feature he cares to in producing a shoe to sell. He can make it stylish at the expense of wear and comfort, or comfortable by cutting into style and wear, or he can turn out a shoe so heavy and stocky it will never wear out—but there will be no semblance of style left and the foot forced to wear it would be in prison. He also knows that a nicely balanced combination of these three shoe virtues is about the hardest problem in shoe making.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Cured by Vinol—Here is Proof.

Seymour, Ind., "I was troubled with chronic stomach trouble and five weeks ago it got so bad I had to give up work. I had tried various medicines without relief and was finally induced to try Vinol. After taking the first bottle I was greatly benefited. Am now on the third bottle and ready to resume work. Am rapidly gaining in weight and strength." Edw. Nieman. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cods' livers, combined with the strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in restoring perfect digestion and at the same time it builds up the tired, overworked and run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Farris-Klutz Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year." SAVED BY QUICK WIT.

Clever Ruse of a French Peasant Called For Conscription.

Two young men of a certain French village were called on to draw for a conscription. One only was wanted to complete the number, and of the two who were to draw one was the son of a rich farmer and the other the only child of a poor widow.

The farmer made friends with the official in charge of the ballot and promised him a handsome present if he would only prevent his son from going into the army. In order to do this the official put into the urn two black balls instead of one black and one white. When the young men came he said:

"There are two balls, one black and one white, in the urn. He who draws the black one must serve. Your turn is first," pointing to the widow's son.

The latter, suspecting that all was not fair, drew one of the balls from the urn and immediately swallowed it without even looking at it.

"Why have you done that?" asked the official. "How are we to know whether you have drawn a black or white ball?"

"Oh, that's very simple," was the reply. "Let the other man now draw. If I have the black he must necessarily draw the white one."

There was no help for it, and the farmer's son, putting his hand into the urn, drew the remaining ball, which, to the satisfaction of the spectators, was a black one.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers.

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Howard Gardner.

Circumstantial.

"What makes you suspect your wife of treachery?"

"Why, she got me heavily insured, and then asked me to fire the cook."—New York Telegram.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Howard Gardner.

AMONG THE SENATORS

Depew the Merriest of All—La Follette's Hair a Butt for Friends.

Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times.

For much longer than the session lasted the Senators remained on the floor chatting and joking with each other. There was some serious talk of politics among the older men, but it was evident that nothing like a legislative program has been agreed on, unless it be called an agreement that in certain quarters it is felt that nothing should be attempted at the short session. That feeling is not shared by the insurgents, or by all the Democrats, but they realize that they are still in the minority.

An interesting group from a political point of view was one formed by Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, Senator Carter, of Montana, and Senator Bailey, of Texas, one of the leading Democrats who is often to be seen in talk with the Republican leaders. Mr. Penrose, of Pennsylvania, also had a chat with Mr. Aldrich, while Mr. Smoot, of Utah, and Mr. Crane, of Massachusetts, seemed to talk with everybody.

Most of the defeated members have learned by now to take their medicine well. Senator Kean, of New Jersey, was as merry as ever and Senator Beveridge was even more chatty than usual, joining heartily in jokes at his own expense. But no one seemed to mind defeat less than Mr. Depew, of New York, who will be succeeded by a Democrat after this session. He seemed to take the whole thing as a joke and insisted on his friends regarding it in the same light.

"Why," he said, laughing gayly, as he was drawn into a crowd of sympathetic friends, "I haven't seen you since I died."

They all laughed at that, and none more loudly than he.

Mr. La Follette, fresh from his victories at home, is wearing his pompadour more flowing than ever. It has whitened noticeably in the last six months, however, and with his intense expression his resemblance to David Belasco is remarkable. He is evidently longing for a fight, and even his jokes are bellicose.

"This weather has taken some of the kink out of your curls," a friend remarked to him.

"They will come back," was Mr. La Follette's brief reply.

It is really wonderful how quickly Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve breaks up a cold, croup or pneumonia symptoms. Just rub it on. Keep a jar ready.

Telegrams and Cablegrams May be Sent by Telephone

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

THE TELEPHONE AGAIN SUPPLEMENTS THE TELEGRAPH

At night, on Sundays, or on holidays, when your local Western Union office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, you may send a telegram or cablegram to any part of the world, even to ships at sea, by forwarding it by Long Distance Bell Telephone to the nearest "all night" telegraph office, and by paying the usual telephone toll charge.

To do this simply call "Telegram". The operator will connect you with "Long Distance" who will give you the telephone charge. If you are a Bell telephone subscriber the cost of both the telegraph and telephone messages may be charged to you, or to the addressee.

Telegrams addressed to you will be read to you over the Long Distance telephone by the Western Union company when your local telegraph office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, if you will pay the telephone toll from the nearest all night telegraph office.

This charge will be small since a number of additional "all night" telegraph offices have been opened to care for this service.

The telephone company, however, undertakes only to place the subscriber in communication with the telegraph office—it assumes no responsibility for errors in transmission.

TO TRANSMIT TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE SAY "TELEGRAM".

Now the Aeroplane Skirt.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—The hobble skirt must go. Today it stood trial before the National Association of Cloak, Suit and Skirt Makers, of North America.

As a result, in the place of the hobble comes the "aeroplane skirt." It will have an unusual fullness at the bottom. From top to bottom it is a series of straight lines. To find the waist is a baffling mystery.

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

HOBBLELESS HOBBLE SKIRT

Latest Style of Garment Shown—Older One To Go Out.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—At last the hobbleless hobble has been invented. It looks like a hobble skirt, it feels like a hobble skirt, it costs like a hobble skirt—but it doesn't hobble.

The successor to the hobble skirt is a deceptive and dainty bit of feminine wearing apparel, which, to the eye of the merely superficial observer, would prevent anything more strenuous than six-inch steps. But here is where the ingenuity of its making is brought into play. Let a hold-up man, an automobile or an enraged bull give chase to the wearer of the new skirt and the mistake will become apparent at once.

The moment the wearer decides to put on a full head of steam and make top speed the lower portion of the skirt opens up like an accordion and gives the fullest possible freedom of movement. The six-inch steps may be lengthened to six feet if the natural handicap imposed by nature upon the wearer does not prohibit such an accomplishment.

The new garment was exhibited for the first time at the closing session of the National Skirt, Cloak and Suit Manufacturers' Association today. It was worn by numerous models, who showed all the possibilities of the deceptive "hobble" by hopping, skipping and jumping about the parlors of the hotel for the edification of the retail men, who applauded the invention.

And here's the secret: Down in the lower extremity of the skirt, where the deadly hobble formerly was concealed, are hundreds of small pleats that are nearly invisible to the eye. They are pressed into the skirt with heavy tailors' irons and steam. They are so designed that they remain tightly pressed together except in the emergencies where longer strides are necessary. Then they open up and allow a show of speed never dreamed of with the original hobble skirt.

The regular hobble skirt, long coat and freakish hats and bonnets are to go, according to members of the association.

DR. J. H. EAGER AT FIRST BAPTIST

Talked Most Entertainingly at Prayer Service of Travels in Europe—Dwelt Especially on the Passion Play at Oberammergau.

Last night at the regular prayer service of the First Baptist church, Dr. John H. Eager, of Baltimore, delivered a short but very entertaining and instructive lecture on the Passion Play.

Dr. Eager says that he is a great traveler, that being a part of his business; that he has crossed the ocean twenty times and has been all over Europe numbers of times. In his introductory remarks he advised the young people to travel in Europe if possible; that if they were given a choice of the last year in school or a trip to Europe, by all means to choose the European trip; that the visit would mean more in the way of culture, inspiration, and breadth of mentality than anything else they could do.

In speaking of the Germans, he remarked incidentally that they were the most virile and energetic people on earth, and that their territory was too limited for their talents and enterprises; that war between the two great civilized nations, Germany and England, would be one of the greatest of crimes, but that Germany must have an outlet for her energies, and if she could get it in no other way she would be more than likely to fight for it.

In reviewing the Passion Play, he was most fluent and entertaining, going over every act in detail and in language within the comprehension of even the little children present. The Play, according to Dr. Eager, is very realistic and is a power for good. When asked if the mercenary spirit had entered into the Play as an enterprise, he expressed himself as of the belief that it had not; that the performance was being given by Christians in the spirit of the Christ.

Dr. Eager is soliciting names of those who wish to go with him on his next trip to Europe, and judging from his talk last evening one could perhaps not find a better equipped guide for such a trip.

He goes from Greensboro to Winston-Salem.
